The Senate Secret Committee, making a tender proposition to extend Slavery. See it under "Latest Items" matters. He and his clique would make slaves of the whites to make it pay, by days work.

A Settler.

The question of the voter is directed to the recommendation of a few leading merchants in Chicago, claims. It leaves Mr. Thomas Hoyne, who is a remarkable animals, from which he will in vain endeavor to relieve himself.

The Recoiled Boy.

The bill was starting day at Washington. All was quiet and serene in the House, and out of it. Mr. Campbell's proposition to make Gov. Stanton control the Anti-Slavery men. They now to vote, but the gap men were on hand. The men could were stunned for a moment, because to blow come from the head of a pro-Bound dead; but they were rallied, and for the moment stand true.

We are ready and on the proposition to try Mr. Buchanan's conscience resolution on the white House broke loss. Notes and Knot voted was the Slavery men. How happened to this? Had money fly? No freemen, no lover of freedom, could have cast that vote, and we trust, that it will be the last of the sort which Buchanan will ever given in that way. New-Years and the Carrier Boys.

By way of wishing those whom they have so faithfully served with that necessity to a breakfast table, the CHICAGO TRIBUNE, our carriers will present their "NEW YEARS ADDRESS," and a fine one it is too, full of good thoughts, beautifully expressed.

Slender, faithfully and regularly has the carrier brought you, your daily paper through summer's heat and winter's cold, and now, when he presents you his welcome to the New-Year, do not let him cut-vie you in generosity, but give him such a substantial "Happy New Year" in return, as shall make his bright eyes sparkle still more brightly, and his heart leap again in the thought that his fidelity and prompt-ness is remembered and appreciated. Long before you "peep o' day," on this bitter cold morning, as many a time afore—he who sells—not to welcome the New Year are the sun/rise upon it—but to serve you with that you had very nearly—not quite—as well at your breakfast, the newspaper. Do not forget this when he presents you his address. If his face does glow with the cold, and his early mornings exercise, just try if you cannot brighten it still more. Try the experiment if you doubt. "Twill make your heart higher all day long. Among all your forget-things do not forget how the carriers do run to welcome this New-Year.

HARMONIAL DOZE.—The proprietors of the Tremont House surprised the Tribune office last evening, by stealing into the editorial room an army of servants, loaded down with choicest refreshments, at for seeing the Old Year out, and the New Year in. The supply was most bountiful—sufficient for the fifty persons absent our establishment—sufficient for the filling of every mouth, from the engine room up through all the different rooms in all departments of the Tribune office. It was most handsomely done, and all the more agreeable because unexpected.

That Messrs. GAGE, BROTHERS & DRAKE may live to repeat the same pleasant favor year after year, for scores of years yet to come, we shall, as in duty bound, perpetually pray.

LITTLE GIRL KIDNAPPED—OUTRAGE.—The Journal of yesterday states that "a man, named F. M. CHAPMAN, and his servant—an apparently inoffensive young mulatto named Wm. Rufus Tracy—were arrested on Saturday by Constable SLOAT, and taken before Justice DAWOLF, on a charge of kidnapping a little girl named "Fanny," taking her out of the State, and selling her in Tennessee for $250. It appears that Mrs. CALLIS-ton has brought the girl, who is only five years of age, in the State, and that he owned her in Arkansas. It appears he got TRACY to take the child down to Tennessee, a few weeks since, and left her there. The case exhibits the evils of slavery in one of the worst features, in thus trading off a poor, innocent little child into perpetual bondage, and doing so in a free State, thus outraging the sentiment of our people on this subject. Justice DAWOLF held CHAPMAN to bail in the sum of $1500 for further examination, and TRACY was committed to jail in default of bail in the sum of $1000.

It appears that the arrest and shutting in the office charged against CHAPMAN. The case comes up for further examination on the 7th of January. The party who first went bail for CHAPMAN, gave him up, but Mr. Sheriff DICKINSON, of the Sherman House, at which he was boarding, became his bail."

Chicago Relief Society.

To the Citizens of Chicago:—The undersigned, without their knowledge or consent, were recently appointed officers of the Chicago Relief Society, together with a new Board of Directors. The very little periods to which we consent at which the meeting of the Society was held, and the new officers were elected, has allowed no adequate time for consultation to be made to meet the calls for help, which, in the present cold weather, are daily increasing. At the time we did so consent (not including contributions, just made, in the hands of the subscribers) consist of one hundred dollars, and on Sunday for still another loan of twenty-five dollars, saying he was going to Blue Island on the train, and would return the next day. GILLEN asked what security he had for the repayment of the money. Rumor told him to take it out of the gold he had left in his charge, if he could not get it any other way; that the amount was $3,500—very good security for only $600. There was no train on the Rock Island Road that day, and Rumor tried to hire a sleigh, but could not get one. Sunday, about four o'clock, some one told GILLEN that RUMOR had been burned up juvenile from the upper story, and news boys. This excited the suspicions of the former, and he immediately proceeded to ascertain the kind of coin left in his charge, when presto! the glittering heap of gold had changed to a decidedly copper hue. The coins were pennies. GILLEN had the good sense to keep his own counsel, and immediately informed the Police of the facts. Officer CHARLES NOYES, one of Capt. ISBARDEY'S expert rogue-catchers, was directed to investigate the matter. "After a few hours' search, he found RUMOR and "shadowed" him until the train was about starting, with the rogue on board, when he made the arrest. The object of the officer in trailing RUMOR instead of making the arrest immediately, was to connect him with two men, who acts as RUMOR's servants, in such a manner as to hold them also; but in this he failed, and they went off on the same train that RUMOR intended to have gone upon.

RUMOR represented that he was from Indiana, and the owner of two large farms there, and also of a large tract of land in this State, and that his wife was dead. He also represented that he had several children at home which rumor confirmed his story. He also represented that he had several of the servants about the house which rumor GILLEN slept in, his object being doubtless, to steal the pennies and thus remove the suspicions amount of gold of GILLEN in a lawsuit.

About $45 was found upon Bishop's person, in which bills being in part the same money lent him by GILLEN. Justice MORRILL held him to bail in the sum of $700 in default of which he was committed for trial.

The prisoner admitted to the justice that he had been here several times before, and that he lived in Ohio. Officer NOYES is fast becoming famous as a shrewd and active detective officer.

An Attractive Lecture at Metropolitan Hall.

MISS GERRISH, a member of the French Chamber of Deputies in 1845, now a political exile from his native country, and a martyr to the supremacy of the Napoleon dynasty, will lecture at Metropolitan Hall, on Wednesday evening next, on the "Philosophy of the French Revolution," a most interesting theme, and one that the distinguished orator is come of our people will be attended to every case of real charity. But we cannot agree with them who, on this account, refuse to encourage any systematic mode of distributing charity to the needy. It is an axiom or jurisprudence, that it is better for ten guilty persons to escape punishment than that one innocent one should suffer. The maxim is equally applicable to the question of charity. Neither can we agree with those who would turn a deaf ear to the brother, with leg, ragged, hungry children around him, because that brother is an indolent, drunken vagabond. There is neither justice nor humanity in making the innocent child or mother suffer, unaided or uncared for, because U J are unsympathetic or unable to be kind to an indolent and unedited husband and father. Visit upon those who deserve it the just punishment, but let the heart of sympathy and the hand of charity both be extended to the helpless and innocent victims of destitution, without distinction of age, color, sex or nativity. The present Board of Directors have become satisfied from the past history of the Society, that it is impossible to secure the services of so large a number of visitors as have been hitherto employed, who will learn their own compensated interests, so far as to gratuitously examine and record the condition of each applicant before extending relief; and that by strictly observing the necessity of restricting more per-manently the benefits of the Society to such, and such only, as constitute the legitimate objects of its organization, they have thought it better to employ but one competent man in each division of the city, and afford him such moderate compensation as will enable him to devote all his time, during the rigidity of the winter, to a careful investigation of the circumstances accompanying every application for aid. By thus concentrating the whole responsibility and labor upon one competent and faithful man in each Division, the Directors are confident that they will secure so much more thorough investigation, completeness of records, and promptness of reports, as to be able to dispense with the services of one-half the number employed at present, and thereby save a large amount of money. Under the present system, under deputies, give a good appetite, and impart a healthy action to the whole system. No person should take any kind should fail to try this great antidote for disease.

Illinois Central Railroad.

There have been, within a few months, several important changes in the direction and management of this company, the principal officers of which are as follows: Wm. H. Osborn, President, in place of JOHN GRISWOLD, resigned, but remains in the directory; John H. Dunn, General Supt., in place of R. B. MASON, resigned, but also continues Chief Engineer; James C. Clarke, Division Supt., in place of JOHN WENTWORTH, resigned; Hon. John Wilson, Land Commissioner, in place of Charles M. Dupuy, resigned; and Hon. E. Lane, Director and Counsel to the Company, in place of James F. Joy, Esq., who continues in the directory.

We were glad to learn the fact, when it was first announced, that Hon. JOHN WILSON's services had been secured to manage the heavy land affairs of the Illinois Central Railroad Company, and to succeed CHARLES M. DUPUY, Esq., who had resigned on account of other engagements.

We have now the pleasure to welcome him to Chicago, where, as understand, he has come with his family to reside permanently.

Mr. WILSON's name has been connected, since boyhood, with the United States Land Office at Washington, and has filled every post, from lowest to highest, with equal credit to himself and satisfaction to the public; and is peculiarly fitted for the service he has undertaken, as well on account of his thorough knowledge of the whole subject of the public lands, and kindred matters, as that he has also a most enviable reputation for honesty and great executive energy and ability. Besides, during a long public life, he has established for himself a noble character, as an honest, straight-forward, high-toned man, and a frank and amiable Christian gentleman.

The magnitude of the sales of the Illinois Central Railroad Company's lands for the year 1855 has been almost incredible, reaching, in round numbers, half a million of acres, for five millions of dollars. The company may feel justly grateful to Mr. DUPUY for his services and successes the past year.

Mr. DUPUY, we understand, intends remaining in the city, and proposes, together with other gentlemen of character and standing, to engage in affairs identical in some respects to those which have occupied his time for the past year; and it gives us pleasure to publish the subjoined flattering official letter, and accompanying resolutions, which, however, tell their own story:

C. M. DUPUY, Jr., New York:

My Dear Sir:—I take great pleasure in handing you the accompanying resolution passed by the Board of Directors of this Company at their meeting held this day, and desire to convey their hearty approbation of your course as their Land Agent during the past year, and the friendly feeling entertained by each individual member of the Board towards you.

I am, Your, with great respect.

W. K. ACKERMAN, Sec'y.

OFFICE OF THE ILLINOIS CENTRAL R. R Co., New York, December 6th, 1855.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of this Company, held this day, the following Preamble and Resolution were adopted:

Resolved, That the Board desire to express to C. M. DUPUY, Jr., their high appreciation of the value of his services the past year in the Land Department of this Company. Through his efficient and intelligent action, the lands have been examined and classified with great accuracy, and the sales thereof conducted in a manner entirely satisfactory to the Board.

Resolved, That the Secretary transmit a copy of the preceding resolution to Mr. DUPUY, accompanied with an expression of regret that the Company will lose his valuable services, and the hope and good wishes of the Board for his success in the new engagements proposed by him.

W. K. ACKERMAN, Sec'y.

GEORGES CONFIRMED MAD CAUSE.—A BOLD SWINDLE.—PRISMS NOT GOLD.—Yesterday morning Officer CHARLES NORTH arrested a man, who gave his name as VALENTINE BISHOP, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses.

It appears that on Christmas day, BISHOP came to the Depot Hotel, kept by MICHAEL GILLEN, a German, near the Southern Michigan Railroad Depot. He stayed there that day and night, and on the next day leased two rolls of coin, which he said he found in the basement of the Sherman House, at which he was boarding, became his bail."

The very little periods to which we consent at which the meeting of the Society was held, and the new officers were elected, has allowed no adequate time for consultation to be made to meet the calls for help, which, in the present cold weather, are daily increasing. At the time we did so consent (not including contributions, just made, in the hands of the subscribers) consist of one hundred dollars, and on Sunday for still another loan of twenty-five dollars, saying he was going to Blue Island on the train, and would return the next day. GILLEN asked what security he had for the repayment of the money. Rumor told him to take it out of the gold he had left in his charge, if he could not get it any other way; that the amount was $3,500—very good security for only $600. There was no train on the Rock Island Road that day, and Rumor tried to hire a sleigh, but could not get one. Sunday, about four o'clock, some one told GILLEN that RUMOR had been burned up juvenile from the upper story, and news boys. This excited the suspicions of the former, and he immediately proceeded to ascertain the kind of coin left in his charge, when presto! the glittering heap of gold had changed to a decidedly copper hue. The coins were pennies. GILLEN had the good sense to keep his own counsel, and immediately informed the Police of the facts. Officer CHARLES NOYES, one of Capt. ISBARDEY'S expert rogue-catchers, was directed to investigate the matter. "After a few hours' search, he found RUMOR and "shadowed" him until the train was about starting, with the rogue on board, when he made the arrest. The object of the officer in trailing RUMOR instead of making the arrest immediately, was to connect him with two men, who acts as RUMOR's servants, in such a manner as to hold them also; but in this he failed, and they went off on the same train that RUMOR intended to have gone upon.

RUMOR represented that he was from Indiana, and the owner of two large farms there, and also of a large tract of land in this State, and that his wife was dead. He also represented that he had several children at home which rumor GILLEN slept in, his object being doubtless, to steal the pennies and thus remove the suspicions amount of gold of GILLEN in a lawsuit.

About $45 was found upon Bishop's person, in which bills being in part the same money lent him by GILLEN. Justice MORRILL held him to bail in the sum of $700 in default of which he was committed for trial.

The prisoner admitted to the justice that he had been here several times before, and that he lived in Ohio. Officer NOYES is fast becoming famous as a shrewd and active detective officer.

An Attractive Lecture at Metropolitan Hall.

MISS GERRISH, a member of the French Chamber of Deputies in 1845, now a political exile from his native country, and a martyr to the supremacy of the Napoleon dynasty, will lecture at Metropolitan Hall, on Wednesday evening next, on the "Philosophy of the French Revolution," a most interesting theme, and one that the distinguished orator is come of our people will be attended to every case of real charity. But we cannot agree with them who, on this account, refuse to encourage any systematic mode of distributing charity to the needy. It is an axiom or jurisprudence, that it is better for ten guilty persons to escape punishment than that one innocent one should suffer. The maxim is equally applicable to the question of charity. Neither can we agree with those who would turn a deaf ear to the brother, with leg, ragged, hungry children around him, because that brother is an indolent, drunken vagabond. There is neither justice nor humanity in making the innocent child or mother suffer, unaided or uncared for, because U J are unsympathetic or unable to be kind to an indolent and unedited husband and father. Visit upon those who deserve it the just punishment, but let the heart of sympathy and the hand of charity both be extended to the helpless and innocent victims of destitution, without distinction of age, color, sex or nativity. The present Board of Directors have become satisfied from the past history of the Society, that it is impossible to secure the services of so large a number of visitors as have been hitherto employed, who will learn their own compensated interests, so far as to gratuitously examine and record the condition of each applicant before extending relief; and that by strictly observing the necessity of restricting more permanently the benefits of the Society to such, and such only, as constitute the legitimate objects of its organization, they have thought it better to employ but one competent man in each division of the city, and afford him such moderate compensation as will enable him to devote all his time, during the rigidity of the winter, to a careful investigation of the circumstances accompanying every application for aid. By thus concentrating the whole responsibility and labor upon one competent and faithful man in each Division, the Directors are confident that they will secure so much more thorough investigation, completeness of records, and promptness of reports, as to be able to dispense with the services of one-half the number employed at present, and thereby save a large amount of money. Under the present system, under deputies, give a good appetite, and impart a healthy action to the whole system. No person should take any kind should fail to try this great antidote for disease.

DOCTORS SELDOM TAKE THEIR OWN MEDICINE.—It is not to be wondered at that Dr. JAS. MCINTOSH'S Sarsaparilla is so highly spoken of by others, in stores, in council-rooms, in the green-rooms of theatres, in banking-houses, in custom-houses, on board river and ocean steamers, saloon steamers, whalers, and every other conceivable place in all parts of the world, because every physician who has tried it has become its friend. Physicians prescribe them in their practice, and use them in their families. The secret of it is, they are the discovery and the use of the most learned and scientific man in the United States.

J. H. THOMPSON'S POMADE OPTIME AND LIQUID HAIR DYE.—J. H. Thompson, author of "Anatomy of the Skin," "Diseases of the Hair and skin," &c., begs to call the attention of the American people to the above celebrated articles for the hair.

THOMPSON'S LIQUID HAIR DYE is not a mere article used by any paper manufacturer of any composition for the hair. It combines no coloring matter or mineral salts. Its agreeable fragrance is obtained by digesting the flowers of the Rose, Verbena, and Heliotrope, with the active principle of Cantharides, which have for ages been well known as the most active agents for the growth of hair. Under its use, new hair begins at once to appear, and in a short time, from the roots of the hair, a beautiful growth of hair will be produced. Gray hair, also, is restored to its natural color, and the hair is rendered soft, glossy, and beautiful. Dandruff is entirely removed, and the hair is rendered free from all impurities. It is the only article which will remove the roots of the hair, and make it grow. Ladies using this Pomade require no use to bonnets, as it does not soil them. Gentlemen will find it the best article for an evening figure.

New York Stock Markets.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26, 1855.

"Mr. J. H. THOMPSON—Dear Sir: I found forward one gallon of Pomade Optime, manufactured by Mr. J. H. Thompson. I can state that the article is well calculated to improve the growth and appearance of the hair. Yours, &c.,

JAMES S. CHILTON, M.D., Chemist.

New York, June 8th, 1854."

Price, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00 per bottle; family jars $5.00.

J. H. THOMPSON, 4 Warren street, New York.

J. H. THOMPSON'S INSTANTANEOUS LIQUID HAIR DYE.

This dye is, without any exception, the best ever manufactured. Nothing sold in America or Europe, of any other description, has ever been least comparable with it. It is not only guaranteed that it will dye red or gray hair in any shade of brown or black in one minute, and that no long be known from natural hair, but that it will not fade or change color. It differs from all other dyes in its effect upon the three or the hair, in the fact of making it the hair beautiful. It does not stain the skin, but leaves it clean and tractable. It is beautifully scented with violets, and will not stain the skin. The price is $1.

CERTIFICATE OF DR. CHILTON.

"Having examined the Hair-Dye prepared by Mr. J. H. Thompson, I was convinced that it was perfectly pure and well calculated to answer the purpose for which it is intended. JAMES S. CHILTON, M. D., Chemist.

"New-York, June 8, 1854."

This certificate, from a scientific gentleman so well known as Dr. Chilton, renders the publication of any other certificates unnecessary, as it is a sufficient guaranty of the genuineness of the article. Sold wholesale and retail by

FREDERICK LETZ,
Chicago Brass Works.
Read the analysis of Professors Porter and Silliman, Yale College, Connecticut, and compare it with any other mineral coal. Sheffield Coal is equal, if not superior, to any in the market.
To Business Cards, $10.—President of the Sheffield Mining Company, Chicago, Ill. Dear Sir—The Sheffield Coal, of which you sent me some time since, is now in use in my boilers, and I am free to say that it is the best coal I have ever used. I have also used the Ohio and Erie coal, and find the Sheffield Coal to be superior to it, in point of heat, and no more dirt. Yours truly, H. T. HUNTINGTON.
